

Uwe W. Petrus - Practical Doctor - Aesthetic Surgery

Main treatment areas:

Liposuction - Body shaping - Body Contouring - Body Sculpting - High-Def-Lipo - Lipotransfer

1984-1991 study of human medicine in Munich, license to practice medicine in 1992, further training as assistant doctor in anesthesia, internal medicine, orthopedics and surgery, with a focus on traumatology. Training as an emergency doctor. Continued surgical training in accident, plastic and vascular surgery and intensive care medicine. During the entire time at the clinic, regular work as an emergency doctor, further training in the field of plastic and aesthetic surgery, as well as training in naturopathic treatment, homeopathy and traditional Chinese medicine.

In 1997 he opened his own practice in Munich and worked as a freelancer in the Stop-Aging Clinic in Munich, a private clinic specializing in plastic surgery. From 2001, management position at the SAC Clinic in Munich for the specialist area of liposuction. Regular further training at national and international congresses.

Since 2003 self-employed in a special practice for operative figure optimization with the operative focus on liposuction, own fat, Lipotransfer and many other therapeutic options for figure improvement.

My personal approach:

My priority as a doctor is the health and satisfaction of my patients. I approach each patient personally, first by listening to their individual goals and wishes during the detailed consultation and then by working out an individually tailored treatment plan together with the patient.

At Lipoaesthetic we believe that true happiness is being able to do what we are meant to do. The idea that the work you love to do makes it effortless brings you passion for your work, challenges you and motivates you to strive for constant improvement. I have been studying and operating on the bodies of men and women for more than 20 years, each day being inspired and motivated by the life-changing stories my patients share with me.

My team and I work with dedication and passion and are totally focused on being true masters of our craft in the field of body shaping, serving patients with compassion, respect, authenticity and care. Visit our practice for a free aesthetic consultation where you can learn more about what we can do for you in terms of body shaping and body definition in a friendly and stress-free environment.

LipoAesthetic.com - Private practice for figure optimization

Uwe W. Petrus - Practical Doctor - Aesthetic Surgery